

BURLEY & GEACH

FAMILY LAW

We aim to give you practical and honest advice during what may be a most difficult and traumatic time. Our experience shows that every case is different and our advice is tailored to individual client's needs and particular circumstances.

Our Practice covers all areas of the law which allows us, as a Firm, to address other issues that may arise. At Burley & Geach we have a team of specialist Solicitors who deal exclusively in all aspects of

Family Law, namely:

- divorce proceedings
- the financial consequences upon separation, whether married or unmarried
- separation involving unmarried couples
- children matters
- injunctions and other protective measures
- family mediation
- care proceedings
- high net worth asset cases
- the family collaborative process

Our Solicitors are:

- Richard Baylis - our Senior Partner, qualified 1976 and based at our Petersfield Office who particularly specialises in care proceedings, injunctions, children matters and divorce. Richard is a member of Resolution (formerly Solicitors Family Law Association)
- Anna-Jane Spirit - a Partner, qualified 1985 at our Petersfield office and also a trained mediator and collaborative lawyer. Anna-Jane is a member of:-
  - UK College of Family Mediators and Family Mediators Association
  - Legal Services Commission Approved Mediator

- Resolution (formerly Solicitors Family Law Association).
- Law Society's Family Law Panel
- Law Society's Family Mediation Panel
- Suzanne Barrett - an Assistant Solicitor, qualified 2003 and based at our Haslemere office and more recently a trained mediator. Suzanne is a member of:-
  - Law Society Family Law Panel
  - Resolution
  - ADR Group

Burley & Geach also undertake publicly funded mediation work that is available where appropriate.